VIII. Match Format

a. Match Format

a-1. Game Time

The match time is based on the following formats:

<Men and Women>

15-minute quarter

However, the last one minute of the fourth quarter stops the clock with all the whistles. At the end of the fourth quarter, if the score is the same, apply the Sudden Victory Rules.

a-2. Sudden Victory Rules

The Sudden Victory Rules are based on the following criteria: However, this rule does not interfere with the adoption of special rules.

<Men>

If the specified playing time is over and is still tied, the Sudden Victory rules shown below will be applied.

The captain chooses the side he wants to win by coin tossing during the three-minute break.

The play begins with a face-off in the middle of the ground, with four four minutes of period(Stop Clock Overtime,which stops the clock at all whistles) until either team scores.

At the end of the second period, take a minute off. If the penalty time remains and the prescribed playing time is over, the remaining penalty time will not be lost.

There is no time-out that the team can apply for during Sudden Victory.

At the end of the four-minute period, both teams change positions. Play at the start of the period starts with a face-off in the middle of the ground.

If sudden Victory's extra-time game is not settled, a coin toss is performed by the team representative, and the winning team is assumed to be the winning team of the game.

<Women>

If the specified playing time is over and is still tied, the Sudden Victory rules shown below will be applied.

The captain chooses the side she wants to win by doing a coin toss during the five-minute break.

Sudden Victory in the six-minute half(Stop Clock Overtime,stop the clock at all whistles) until either team scores.

Make a side change at the time 3 minutes passed (there is no rest time during this time, resumed with a draw at the center).

Sudden Victory put in a one-minute half-time between the first half and the second half.

There is no time-out that the team can apply for during Sudden Victory.

The match begins with a draw at the center.

b. Suspension of a Match

b-1.

Execution committee chairperson shall have the final authority to suspend and resume the match.

b-2.

If the match is interrupted due to the difficulty of continuing for any reason, the match will be re-matched or terminated by the following criteria.

<Men and Women>

If the second quarter is not over, it will be treated as a 0-0 tie. If the second quarter is finished, the match is set to be established.

In addition, if the match is established, the score at the time of interruption shall be the result of the match.

c. Ranking

The rank in the block is ranked high from the team with a lot of points won when all the preliminary matches are finished according to the winning point system described below.

Win → 3 points

Lose → 0 points
